

IN LOVING MEMORY

Tracy Ann Cazenave

22nd January 1964 - 21st January 2021

Entrance Song 'Stairway to Heaven' by Led Zeppelin

> Welcome Bernadette Nolan

Poem 'Until we meet again' by Zohaad Irfan

> Eulogy By Becky

Poem 'We had a wonderful mother', the author is unknown

> Reflection 'Free Bird' by Lynard Skynard

Eulogy By Louise

Poem

'My mother was a Rebel' and was written especially for Tracy by Sammy Aquilina

My Mother was a Rebel My mother was a rebel She really didn't care She would listen to rock, Swear - a lot Oh, the stories she would share My mother was a rebel Not like all the rest She didn't care who she would offend If it meant getting things off her chest My mother was a rebel With a pure rebel heart If you asked me of her best qualities I wouldn't know where to start My mother was a rebel My god, she drove me M.A.D She taught me pure and simple loyalty With the way she loved my dad My mother was a rebel But I wouldn't change a thing Because when I think of the times we've shared My heart begins to sing

> Committal Bernadette Nolan

Exit Music 'Behind blue eyes' By Limp Bizkit

On behalf of Tracy's family, we'd like to thank all those who have attended today's service and for the overwhelming expressions of support & sympathy

> Friday 26th February 2021 11:45am Thornhill Crematorium Wenallt Chapel

FUNERALS & MEMORIALS

Funeral Conducted by Aj